XoomPoint launches new generation eLearning cloud solution in Scandinavia

Digital learning solutions developer XoomPoint Corporation and Elearnit, specializing in Learning Management Systems development, to launch new cloud based eLearning technology in the Scandinavian market.

eLearning platforms, authoring tools and content services provider XoomPoint Corp. partners with Elearnit in the Scandinavian market. The partnership unites the cloud based Microsoft Azure compatible technologies developed by XoomPoint with the agile open source Forma Lms eLearning solution by Elearnit. The first releases in Scandinavia are scheduled for the beginning of 2017.

Riikka Hagman, CEO of XoomPoint, is thrilled about the cooperation and the opportunities this partnership offers. "Thanks to the partnership XoomPoint is able to provide our customers with the perfect, agile cloud based eLearning platform suited for companies of all sizes. This complement to our existing palette of products and services improves also our possibility to serve customers in different stages of eLearning deployment and utilization", says Hagman. "Elearnit has a profound experience of open source eLearning development, which is a perfect supplement to our present range of business. We are also very enthusiastic to be a part of this international developer community with renowned technology development experts from all over the world", Hagman adds.

As the first partner in Scandinavia XoomPoint joins the international eLearning developer network Forma founded by Elearnit. The community cooperates on the development of an open source Learning Management System platform, the Forma Lms. Massimiliano Ferrari, Partner and Founder of Elearnit and Forma LMS, is truly excited about the partnership. "We are extremely happy to welcome XoomPoint Corporation as our new international partner. To keep on improving the product and providing better solutions to customers and users worldwide, Forma Lms' core network of companies will need new forces. I know that XoomPoint can do an excellent job to help us with the upcoming Forma 2.0 as well as with custom development, user interface and product documentation." Forma Lms is widely recognized as one of the best corporate-oriented open source Learning Management Systems. In 2015 Forma Lms was rewarded the best open source LMS.
